POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

For Circuit Judge

The Interior Journal is authorized to announce Charles A. Hardin as a candidate for Circuit Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial District, at the election to be held November, 1911, subject to the action of the Demo-

Almost every correspondent who writes for the Interior Journal has something to say about the poor condition of Lincoln county's roads as compared with those of Boyle, Garrard and other neighboring counties. Anyone who travels much through this section is bound to notice the difference and ask the reason why. Now what is the reason?

Just a week until the question is settled whether the "Interests" are to run the government for another two years through holding control of the lower House of Congress. Don't forget to shoot once on behalf of the people by voting for Helm.

Many a Lincoln county hubby is already being told what he can buy his wife for Christmas.

Malt Meade Decisions

OF COURT OF APPEALS CAUSE MUCH INTEREST

Several months ago Judge O'Rear of the court of appeals handed down an opinion holding that it was a violation of the local option laws to sell malt liquors in a "dry" territory, as malt liquors was an intoxicant whether it produced a feverish drunk or just a mild sort of intoxication, malt meade was constructed to be such and it was therefore against the law to sell in a prohibition territory.

The case was sent to the Court of Appeals from Bowling Green and created much comment throughout the State.

Upon this decision the grand jury now sitting at the present term of the Madison circuit court has notified all malt meade dealers in Richmond and Madison county last that they must either stop selling this article of drink or answer to indictments which would be forthcoming immediately. The grand jury held that the city council had no right to grant a license for selling malt meade near beer and other drinks of like character. Upon this warning the local dealers decided to quit.

Now the Court of Appeals has reversed itself, this time Judge Carroll has handed down an exhaustive opinion, which was given Wednesday and said in part:

"That liquor sold in a local option district, must be proven to be intoxicating, if it is such a liquor that its properties are not judicially known."

The above case was from Beattyville. A dealer named Gouley was indicted on the charge of selling malt liquor contrary to the prohibition laws was fined and the case taken to the higher court. Of course under Judge Carroll's opinion it must be proven that a person became drunk from the effects of malt meade and this would be practically impossible. The decision just rendered is a direct reversal of the opinion handed down some time ago by Judge O'Rear, and in this city, which is greatly concerned over the question just at this time, there has been a wide comment.

Judge Benton who has always held that the malt liquor was an intoxicant and under the statute it was unlawful to sell in a local option territory, was
